The old philosophy of “always buy never lease” just isn’t true for everyone. Owning may be right for some and but not for others and leasing actually has far more pros than cons. When you lease in NY you can usually lower your monthly payment by quite a bit compared to owning a vehicle. That sounds nice, right? And you will always be driving a late model, fuel-efficient car or truck which, if you continue to lease, will save you on gas and maintenance up front.

And at the end of a lease, there is no hassle with selling a used car or haggling about a trade in.
